NAPA's Royal International Ball Returns, Bigger Than Ever

By Eryn Hopkins
Last year, NAPA Rotary hosted our first K-Pop Dance Party, and it turned out to be one of the most meaningful nights our club has ever put on. This November, that same event returns with a new name and an even bigger vision: NAPA's Royal International Ball: A Ball for All. NAPA's Royal International Ball is a sensory-friendly celebration built for students. We are actively seeking sponsors to help make this night possible for every student and family who walks through the door. [more]

Club News Dougherty County Brings Books to Community Center

By Rebecca McCathern
Dougherty County Rotarians just invested in the Driskell Community Center in Albany - donating books, a new bookcase, and their time to create a reading space for the neighborhood. The Driskell Community Center serves children, families, and adults in the surrounding community with programs throughout the year. And that's just the start.

Club News NAPA Rowtarians Take on the Atlanta Dragon Boat Race

By Eryn Hopkins
At the North Atlanta Professional Alliance (NAPA) Rotary Club, Service Above Self doesn't take a rain check. Our NAPA "Rowtarians" proved it at this year's Atlanta Dragon Boat Race and Family Day, paddling hard against a full field of 70 other competing boats, rain and all.
