Our Goal Is World Peace

No, it's not a scholarship program

By Alec Smythe

GRSP is a peace program, not an academic scholarship. The goal of the GRSP program is to identify talented, ambitious kids from all over the world, bring them to Georgia for a transformative year at a critical time in their lives, where they learn about other cultures and establish life long friendships with other talented and ambitious young people. Our hope is that when these young people return to their home countries they will grow to become leaders in their professions and never forget the lessons learned on Georgia's campuses and Rotary clubs. GRSP is a bet on the leadership of the world. [more]
